Season's Greetings. Take our best wishes.
Dear Eddy & Panos, thank you very much for a lovely gift. It has a lot of meaning & we hope it will bring Arina good luck.
She was baptised last Sunday (Jan. 8).
My brother Alexey who is very religious became her god father. We send you Andrei's first volume of his poetry and "O" in "Nooy Mik"
A Greek producer is expected to come at the end of Jan. to arrange Mark Zacharov's theater's visit to Athens for "Томона а Авоч" performance in Spring. If everything works well Andrei will come to Greece and then he plans our visit to Cyprus.
I am looking forward to this trip. For me it will be such a great event

My dear Elli,

Thank you very much for the sunlit photo - I am not at all going to part with it for any magazine...

Happy to tell you that your poems read very well in Russian - the translations have been done by one of our young and brilliant poetesses, so the results are satisfactory. If not more. Now I shall see to it that the poems are published.

As to the choice of my poems - I leave this entirely to your good taste.

Give all my love to charming Panos.

I wish you all the best and, especially, a merry Christmas. Zoya and Andrei are joining me.

Yours,

Andrei
