Dear Vassily,
So helpful these fax machines! We do hope that Alona has fully recovered! We kiss both your beautiful girls!
Since nothing has been definitely fixed for the summer we propose you come to Cyprus late September when we will be here and the temperatures are not so high. You can stay with us, in our house in Limassol and spend some time in the village where the grapes will be collected. Then, early October, you can go from here to Rhodes. It's so near, late July (26th to 1st August) Elli will be with a group of Cypriot writers in Gotland. Both Greek Cypriot and Turkish Cypriot. They will be the guests of writers and Translators Center. You will discover them! The event is in the frame of initiatives to bring together the two communities and promote understanding.

How is the new novel moving? Do you stick to your original plan and bring to Amathus the two youngsters? (By the way Slava and Kokosha and Mikis Theodorakis and a friend sculptor in Paris, in his 80s, are all together in a short story I wrote. Title: When rain came! Your friend
