21 September 2000/Ho

Dear Mr Peonidis,

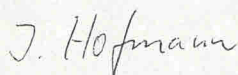

In September 2001 our publishing house intends to publish an anthology of modern Greek stories, ed. by Niki Eideneier and Sophia Georgallidis. The working title is: Die Erben des Odysseus. Griechische Erzählungen der Gegenwart. The book will be sold at an approximate price of DM 19,50 and amount to about 240 pages. As the editors have already informed you, they would like to include your text Millenium in this volume.

We would be grateful if you could grant us permission for the exclusive right for printing this story. We can offer you a fee of DM 20,-- for each page of printed text for a first edition of 10.000 copies. Should further editions be printed, the corresponding fee will be paid on publication, too. Of the first edition, we would send you two complementary copies; one complementary copy of each further edition.

Furthermore we would like to ask you to grant us subsidiary rights on the story such as: pre-print, subsequent publication in journals, newspapers, schoolbooks or anthologies; bookclub rights; hardcover rights; other forms of duplication by photomechanical, electronical or similar processes; use for data bases, radio and television readings. Should any of this occur, we would offer you a royalty share of 60% of our earnings. If the subsidiary rights of more than one story of this anthology are sublicensed together, we can offer a total of 60% for all authors involved, corresponding to the number of pages used.

If you agree with our proposition, please sign and return the copy of this letter.

Thank you very much for your cooperation.
Yours sincerely,

Irene Hofmann
