

Jones Ernest, M.D., B.S., F.R.C.P. (Lond), D.P.H. (Cantab.) President of the International Psycho-Analytical Association, British Psycho-Analytical Society and of the Institute of Psycho-Analysis.
Consulting Physician (late Director) to London Clinic for Psycho-Analysis; Editor of the International Journal of Psycho-Analysis and of the International Library of Psycho-Analysis; — Managing Director of the "Internationaler Psychoanalytischer Verlag." Hon. Member American Psycho-pathological Association, British Psychological Society and of the American, French, German, Hungarian and Italian Psycho-Analytical Societies, F.R.S.M., F.R.S.A, F.R.A.I; m. 1919. Katherine Joke, two s. one
d. Educ. - University Colleges Cardiff and London; Munich, Paris and Vienna. Double first-class honours with two Gold Medals at M.B; London. Gold Medal at M.D. London. After filling several Hospital Posts in London, Professor of Psychiatry at the University of Toronto, and Director of the Ontario Clinic for nervous Diseases; before and after this spent two years on Continent in research work. returned to England 1913, confining work to Medical Psychology; introduced study of Psycho-Analysis into England and America. Publications: Ten Books and two hundred monographs on Neurology, Psychology and Anthropology; edited Social Aspects of Psycho-Analysis, 1924.
Recreation: figure-skating. Address: 42 York Terrace, N.W. 1;
The Plat, Elsted, Sussex. T. Harting St.