DEAR Mrs. Peonidu,

Once again I express our satisfaction with your accepting the invitation to participate in the Sixth International Writers' Meeting. All preparatory work has been successfully carried out. We have already received acknowledgement for participation by a number of prominent writers of our time.

If you have not received your prepaid ticket until October 1st, please contact us using the address, telephone or telex of the Union of Bulgarian Writers.

We are sending you herewith the provisional programme and we hope that you are going to participate actively in it.

We wish you good health and creative spirit.

We are looking forward to meet you in Sofia.
