

MRS. MURRAY FUHRMAN
Special Representative of the Secretary-General for UNIS

16 April 1992

Dear Mr. Peonides,

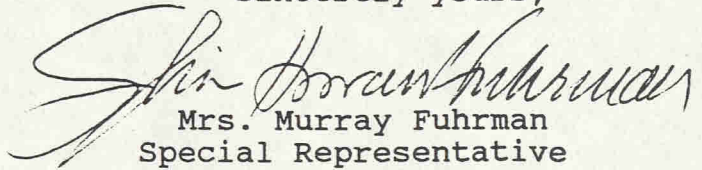

It was a pleasure indeed to meet with you this morning. How good of the Hunts to introduce us.

The attached material on the United Nations International School may be of interest to you. Sorry I forgot to give it to you when you were in my office. There have always been several students from Cyprus at the School. Perhaps we can think of ways of participating in some joint activities.

I look forward to renewing and expanding our friendship.

With warm regards.

Sincerely yours,

Mrs. Murray Fuhrman
Special Representative of the Secretary-General
