Dear Panos and Elli,
In this lost island may be it's possible to imagine how can be sweet to live and dye

I stay here, far from everything and near,
so near and close,
to the wind and the earth, always different never the same.

I'm trying to finish
the novel I'm still working here ---

à Elli et à Panos

Chers amis, dear friends.

Paris est sous la neige et je vous écris —
this letter from France... where we are, now, with all the good records from Greece and Cyprus. Thank you for everything again Now, really, we keep your country in our heart and in our memory.

I get your letters and the translation of Elli's "Hours" — I will try to present an adaptation of this poem / as you know in french.

Aragon is well and soon - his last volume of unpublished poetry will be in library --- If you come in Paris in springtime
we will be very happy to give you hospitality

I send you the "Élégie to Romano" as promised... May be you can get the translation in greek in the magazine "I LEXIS" ... in Athènes. (N° December)

I hope to see you as soon it would be possible.

Avec toute mon amitié

"Heureux celui qui meurt d'aimer..."

L.R.

My dear Panos.

I'm writing this letter, alone in my room late in the night and I don't know why but I feel so terrible that I can't explain here with words -

As I told you before in our last phone conversation - about the merely odd situation and the sudden changing in the health of my dear Louis...

I saw him yesterday afternoon. He seemed very weak and tired and could't walk normally. Even he did'nt want to talk, just two or three words and he stopped, looking longly to me, kissing my hands.

He wanted to always to raise from the armchair and wanted to walk, to get off from the house, to get outside.

I helped him to go downstairs slowly and we walked a little beat in the yardcourt of the house (rue de Varenne)... but he could'nt really walk as usual and we returned in his flat after 15 min.

You can imagine how I was and how I felt to see him being this way, How SAD and depressed I was! But I tried to hide my pain in his presence..

... After we returned from Toulon, Louis was still ~~be~~ as you saw him before, during these nice few days we were together at the Residence.

The first week in Paris we went as usual at restaurant ~~le~~ Boeuf and other places. We walked in Paris and Louis talk, as you know - and sometimes laughed and made jokes - We went to OLYMPIA (Music-Hall) to listen a singer and all the times he was smiling and listening with attention to the songs - - -

Now... he looks so out of the things... so sad... so terribly sad! - I don't understand but I'm sure that the new treatment makes more harm to him than before... and accelerate his degradation (physical of course) In the other hand the atmosphere of psychological environnement has also changed now - Jean Ristat, full of himself, wants always to keep Louis as a monument of his pre

As far as his ambitions ordered to him he is going to "possess" the rights, the memory, the body, the life of Aragon. Now he is trying to put distance between Louis and me and even Louis with all the people --- I think he has never accepted to see my Friendship with Louis it's Jealousy... Even if he was obliged to accept me and use me for his own purposes. He ~~got~~<sup>found</sup> his place in the party as the representant of Louis and I'm merely sure that he has tried with no much success to demonstrate to our friends that I could be a "handicap" for Louis, that my presence (and even my rights) could be a problem for the Party ... and so, and so, absurd pretentions and gossips!, because Louis helped me economically and spiritually...

Before summer I was in Louis' house (mainly because I wanted to be nearer to ~~him~~ him) - but now, the Party has "decided" that I cannot stay in Louis' house - By chance, before vacation, Louis helped me to find and get this little flat where now I'm living - But I'm worried about all the things specially with Louis' health -

(Please forgive my english non senses and mistakes)

I don't know why I should accept all these things! I will never accept this kind of treason (traitor).

I'm - as Aragon taught me - a man of freedom and justice. I believe I'm - I can't support stupidity and lies. In the same time I look powerless because Louis is sick and I don't want to make him worse than he is...

Dear Panos, I'm so sad, to see this month of October... I'm remembering all the good moments of summer with our promises and plans... to come with Louis in Greece and in Cyprus, near to you.

Now I feel like an orphan. Tell to Elli all this. My only consolation it's to have found good and true friends. I will fight as long it could be possible.

Would you please ~~give~~ give me your phone number in Limassol?

Kisses to Elli and Melina
Best regards to our Cypriot friends and writers -
