Greek lessons go well, as does work!

Thanks so much for all your support! I've visited with Poly Casada and Nefeli Koutantini, both of which were good connections! I'll go to a lecture again on Friday with Poly + her friends.

AVATAR's current project, Hera's MONUMENT TO THE WOMAN CULTURE OF ANCIENT CRETE will be built near Heraklion. It is a public sculpture derived from images found on the frescoes of Knossos, and is designed as an architectural fragment open to the sky. Two colonnades frame views to the four major centers of Crete's Woman Culture. Hera is joined by the people of Crete in the MONUMENT's planning, installation and care.

AVATAR is a not-for-profit organization founded in 1983 to promote outstanding public art. Its goal is to support art that encourages a broad vision and challenges the imagination. AVATAR provides organizational support for artists who design public places for community life. AVATAR particularly concerns itself with work that is collaborative, participatory, and site-responsive.

Dear friends-

Forgive me for failing to write sooner. I have been travelling. In fact, six weeks ago, I was with Juanita and Djelal in Ankara for about three days. All three of us spoke on the same panel on Nov. 20th.

I hope you have been well. You probably had a wonderful time visiting your daughter. Her work sounds very exciting.

Did you come to New York in November?

Any new poems in English translation? Could you send me some?

In a few days I am going to Ankara where I shall be teaching at Bilkent University. I'll probably be here for the most part of 1998.

My address:

BILKENT UNIVERSITY
FACULTY OF HUMANITIES AND LETTERS
06533 ANKARA

Home phone: 0312 266 4284

I will of course come back to New York several times a year - lectures, meetings, etc.

Hope to see you in Ankara if you come that way.

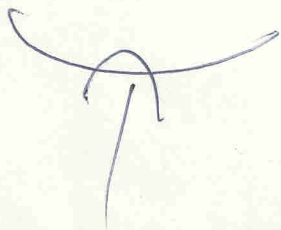

Seniha joins me in sending you our fond greetings and all best wishes for a lovely, joyous New Year.

Sorry I've been so out
of touch
I've decided to stay around
Wood stock + establish a better
income for myself before I dart off to Greece again. I've also decided not to do any more fundraising for the public sculpture.

These decisions have been
good ones ~ I've now got a part time job which brings in an extra $1000 per month + a private sculpture commission!

My middle son Jordan has moved to Burlington, VT to live with his fiancee, Lorelei. That leaves me with 4 rental properties to manage + the other work
which is OK ~ I'm also consulting under the name "Holy Hera!"

consulting — (That's what Wonder Woman
says when she needs help — Hera was her grandmother). I consult w) individuals who need grants
with, non-profits organized, presentations produced, etc. @ $80 per hr. The work is irregular but interesting — it's a lot like coaching or college teaching.

Since we were last in contact
I've moved one man in + out, +
found a new Sweetie, Peter Koch —
a bright, athletic 6'2" Frank,
who is 7 yrs. younger than Jan —
perfect! We're here in Lake Placid enjoying the incredible snow for county skiing + downhill (for him). The Good will games begin here tomorrow,
so there's quite an ^{international} subbab in town.
Peter is an ex-ecology professor + a writer (his dad was Howard Koch
the Academy Award winning screenwriter)

"Casablanca", As you can imagine,
we spend a lot of time discussing (my poetry)
etymology & share our writing
as well as our love of sports
the outdoors.

My sons are all doing well.
Kurt has just finished a re-write of that old Sandy Dennis movie "Sweet November"
for Warner Bros. + has another contract waiting.
He's living in Culver City, CA w/ Jessica his love of several years. Beau's still in NYC — working parttime as the bartender
in a funky Thai restaurant. Jordan is doing web site design from his home in Burlington. His Dad is currently his biggest client.

I've finally gotten around to submitting a manuscript of 48 poems to a competition. The winner receives a $2000 award + a contract to publish

The manuscript. The great thing about it is that I'm considering publishing it as a chapbook even if I don't win. — Now that I've edited & organized it.

Life is good & —

New York state is really beautiful? Come visit me!

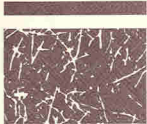

Lots of love,

Hera

PS — I'm also in a performance swing dance troupe — what fun!
