Welcome to NYC. It has much to offer as I am sure you will find out. Your presence and smiles will enrich many lives. I only hope that as New Yorkers can enrich your lives as well.

If you need lots of money, don't call me. If its a smile you desire, I'll be happy to oblige. But look in the mirror and your own smiles will come alive. God Bless!

35 This has been a most remarkable evening, which feels like the beginning of many, many things.

I feel so honoured to be here with you and Ruth. In fact, I don't have the words to express how it happened, I walked in, already knowing that I would be welcomed, and with such ease we spend the time together, talking, eating, telling stories and the whole world passes by.

50

I am really happy we met in the new world and that our friendship is strengthened in the old world we came from. We are artists and as such we connect, which is also why we are here. When we next meet I will write for you 'the Navigator' since you came from a beautiful island and we are all navigators of the world.

This is also part of the dream and the constant rebirth and exorcism of the artist...

Second Skin

I love the morning

The moon in the morning
and the sun at night.

See the skyline
We'll fly across time
and shed our pains.

I dance and loosen my chains
defy gravity
change identity
in a state of grace.

The soul aches,
we reverse the order of the universe.

It is a great pleasure to meet you both. We are only sorry that we did not meet in New York!

Jean Giono wrote that some people try to climb mountains - and spend all their lives trying to reach the summit. Once there, they are alone - able to speak only to other men who also stand alone

on their little mountain tops.
They shout to each other across the void - able only to tell the tales of their epic ascents.

But they forget that down below,
in the little valleys, where the grass is green and lush, and the air is sweet - ordinary people can whisper the secrets of the heart to each other.

These mountain climbers who turn back, and look down to the little valleys, are the true
artists - for no artist can ignore the call of the heart. Therein lies passion.

From this little valley
my best wishes

Welcome!

...to the 45th Season of the Actors Studio. Sessions will resume on Tuesday, October 6th, 1992. Acting Sessions will be held on Tuesdays and Fridays from 11 o'clock am to 2 o'clock pm.

The Playwrights/Directors Unit Sessions will be held on Tuesday afternoons from 3 o'clock to 6 o'clock pm.

The P/D Unit will be oriented to the Jubilee Season. Any non-Jubilee booking needs special permission from Frank Corsaro.

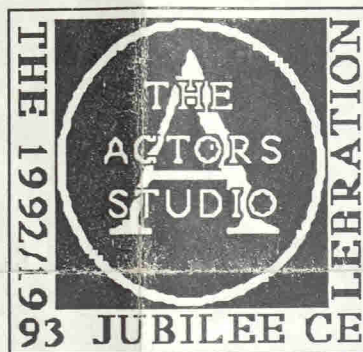

Celebrity Auction

The Membership Committee of the Actors Studio is planning an all-Star Celebrity Auction to be held at Christie's auction house in the Spring of 1993 to benefit the Actors Studio.

Contributions thus far include a two week vacation for two couples at the country house of Mr. and Mrs. Panicos Peonides.

Their home is 150 years old and is located on the Mediterranean Island of Cyprus in a small village, in the center of a wine producing region, a short distance from the sea.

Al Pacino has donated his original script for Godfather III with all of his notations and comments.

Vanity Fair

The November issue of Vanity Fair, which hits the newsstands mid-October will feature photographs taken by Annie Leibovitz of forty-five Actors Studio Members. Thanks to all of the Studio Members who agreed to participate in spite of their busy schedules.

Special thanks go to Norman Mailer (as a result of all of Norman's hard work Vanity Fair's Graydon Carter will join Tina Brown and Paul Newman in hosting a small fundraising benefit dinner for the Studio on November 16th), Tina Brown who arranged for The Actors Studio to be featured in Vanity Fair's Hall of Fame issue this year, Annie Leibovitz and her tremendous staff at Leibovitz Studio, Jane Sarkin and Krista Smith of Vanity Fair and to all of those innumerable others who made this shoot happen.

Studio Members were chosen for the photos by Annie Leibovitz and Jane Sarkin, Features Editor of Vanity Fair.

Working Finalists

These are people who are expected to do another final in May of 1993 but can, in the meantime, do a limited amount of work in session on the stipulation that they work with a member.

Working Finalists cannot book either scenes or re-hearsal space. The member that they are working with must be responsible for doing this.

The Working Finalists Are:

Nicole Ansari, Michael Bahr, Lynnea Benson, Tom Brangle, Stuart Burney, Garret Dillahunt, Patt Franklin, Susan Garrett, William Hallmark, Larimore Hampton, Margie Hanssens, Lily Knight, Amy Lemon, Michael Lewis, Denise Mahnken, Michael Mahon, Christina Pabst, Stella Pulo, Elizabeth Rossa, Joe Sharkey, Steven Vause and Robert Verlaque.

Meeting

There will be a general Membership meeting of The Actors Studio on Friday, November 6th at 3 o'clock pm at the Studio. A show of attendance would be appreciated.

Attention: A Special Request

We would appreciate it if all members would be so kind as to mail in updated pictures and resumes. If you can remember the date you became a member, which scene you auditioned with, how many times you auditioned, or who made you a member, that information would be greatly appreciated as well as we are trying to update our files.

New Members

A list of actors who have gained membership in 1992 follows:

Chris Baskous, Jacqueline Bertrand, Ivar Brogger, K. Sonnie Brown, William DiMartino, Olympic Dukakis, Mira Furlan, Julie Hagerty, Owen Hollander, Tom Hulce, Alexander Lange, Christian Maelen, Jamie Marsh, Anne Meara, Lucille Rivin, Robert Stevens and Brenda Vaccaro

Reminder: Studio Policies

The Membership Committee would like to stress the following:

1. The first three rows are for use by members only during session. Vacant seats are to remain vacant and may not be filled by non-members after session begins.
2. Approval of visitors and guests must be given in advance by Patty Ewald or Frank Corsaro. If you would like to have a guest you must submit their name and the date they would like to observe to the office at least one week in advance. You are welcome to contact Peter or Erin in the office to find out whether or not your request was approved.
3. There should be no applause after an actors session or reading of a play.
4. Only members of the units are permitted to critique sessions.
5. Only Peter or Erin may schedule rehearsal time in the appointment book.
6. We have a new pay phone by the costume closet in the reception area. That makes two pay phones. If one is in use, please use the other. We installed it in response to the overwhelming membership demands for use of the office phones whenever the phone in the green room was busy. The office phones are to be used for Studio business only. If you ask, we will say no. (Except in cases of the most extreme of personal emergencies)

Celebrity Auction

The Membership Committee of the Actors Studio is planning an all-Star Celebrity Auction to be held at Christie's auction house in the Spring of 1993 to benefit the Actors Studio.

Contributions thus far include a two week vacation for two couples at the country house of Mr. and Mrs. Panicos Peonides.

Their home is 150 years old and is located on the Mediterranean Island of Cyprus in a small village, in the center of a wine producing region, a short distance from the sea.

Al Pacino has donated his original script for Godfather III with all of his notations and comments.

At Djelal Kadi's House.

We remembered each other, though we meet for the first time -

We reminisce, we drink, break bread, gather wood, sing, &
survey the far Oklahoma sky.

We are alone together on this fraternal occasion far from our home shore, yet at home because our home is small enough to fit into our hearts that open up to take each other in with love,
in admiration, with awe at how much we share on this our first nostos away from home. With Love

For my new friends, Elli and Panos, --
There being no past, no present,
and no future, I am glad there is "Thanksgiving". It was a special pleasure to be with you both on this most American of feast days. We in Oklahoma are very pleased that your first visit out of New York was to our state. I hope we shall be friends, always.

Venus in exile

O clouds descend, ~~wrap~~ ^{enfold} me like a pillow,
take my breath away: let me sleep;
running, running ... five million laps in as many years-
and dying of thirst, and learning to drown,
and learning to live with weeping; under the carpets,
lay the elegies, unpublished,
for unborn children who untaught would weep;
at the séance for the suicides,
what solace were you waiting for? the missing missive
found, that would make it all right?
what goods did you expect to buy,
with worn pennies stolen from shut eyes?
ecce mundo. the one-armed, headless mannequin
stops between the boulevards, with hand outstretched;

Brother, can you spare, can you spare,
can you spare, a kiss? Citizen,
can you help me find my way back to the island, to what once,
was home?

Αγαπημένοι μου Αθηνά και Πάνο, χίλια ευχαριστώ που με κάνατε να συνδεθώ τόσο στενά με τον κώπο και να αποκτήσω τόσους φίλους εδώ. Αλλά εόσα ευχαριστώ για την
 υπαίτια φιλοξενία σας. Ελπίζω πως θα ξανάρθω
