Sweet Ellie & James,
 we will visit in Cyprus
 only if you promise to stay with us when you return (soon!) to NYC.

Ellie can help me learn all those risqué Greek words of Gamost & I will play the next big party!

We love you lots!
 Come back soon!

Dear Elli & Panos:

It's been wonderful getting to know you this year — sharing stories and laughter, good food and theatre — I shall miss those phone calls from Panos "Hello dear leeeza!" (I always know it's you when you call!) — We hope to see you in Cyprus in the future, and we look forward to your visits to NYC!

My Congratulations
on your 30th Anniversary are tempered by my sorrow at your departure from New York. You are both such bright and lovely (and loving) human beings. Everything here will be a bit dimmer without you.
I send with you all my love and good energy and happiness at our having become friends. How wonderful it will be to see you in Cyprus! Soon!
kisses, Love and Hugs - Tatty

Dear Elli o Paris -

Even in New York, as open and friendly as it is, one doesn't every day meet people who so quickly become part of one's circle of friends, part of one's life, who share one's interests and even more important, one's values.

I'm glad that happened to us!

With affection - Lucy Kornisar

To my wandering friends - Comeback soon -

— or I'll see you in Cyprus - good-bye with love for now.

Dear Elli & Panikos,

An enchanting evening in your company, only reinforces my desire to return back to my roots and family.

I know that John will enjoy meeting you both. Let's hope the dream will become true one of these days.

P.S. Thanks for the book, which I shall look forward to reading.

To Elli & Panos, whom we are glad & happy to see again - this time in your beautiful home in Limassol. Thank you so much for your hospitality. The warm welcome compensated the big rain & low temperature. And now we leave your beautiful island in the sun with its beautiful smells, green trees & yellow flowers - & hope to see you in Bonn (3rd July for the 100th!)
 Love, Muriel & Fred

Dear Elli and Pamira, sitting here with you is sitting at home. Life is so short, and the sorrows so many, that you need to be a tree in a forest of friends. Thank you for your love and generosity!
