Celebrity Auction

The Membership Committee of the Actors Studio is planning an all-Star Celebrity Auction to be held at Christie's auction house in the Spring of 1993 to benefit the Actors Studio.

Contributions thus far include a two week vacation for two couples at the country house of Mr. and Mrs. Panicos Peonides.

Their home is 150 years old and is located on the Mediterranean Island of Cyprus in a small village, in the center of a wine producing region, a short distance from the sea.

Al Pacino has donated his original script for Godfather III with all of his notations and comments.

Vanity Fair

The November issue of Vanity Fair, which hits the newsstands mid-October will feature photographs taken by Annie Leibovitz of forty-five Actors Studio Members. Thanks to all of the Studio Members who agreed to participate in spite of their busy schedules.

Special thanks go to Norman Mailer (as a result of all of Norman's hard work Vanity Fair's Graydon Carter will join Tina Brown and Paul Newman in hosting a small fundraising benefit dinner for the Studio on November 16th), Tina Brown who arranged for The Actors Studio to be featured in Vanity Fair's Hall of Fame issue this year, Annie Leibovitz and her tremendous staff at Leibovitz Studio, Jane Sarkin and Krista Smith of Vanity Fair and to all of those innumerable others who made this shoot happen.

Studio Members were chosen for the photos by Annie Leibovitz and Jane Sarkin, Features Editor of Vanity Fair.
