Dear Mr. Michaelides,

Many thanks for your letter.

I hope you will receive the book all right. Of course you do not owe me anything for it. I am glad to present it to you, and in any case, I had a spare copy.

Professor Saygun is quite hopeless. I also have heard nothing from him and am still awaiting the text of his paper. I rather think that he may not yet be back in Ankara.

With kindest regards,

Yours sincerely,

Manuel Kapeles
