Dear Prof. Solon Michaelides,

LLANGOLLEN INTERNATIONAL
MUSICAL EISTEDDFOD 1949

With reference to my letter of 1 October and our conversation in London on Tuesday last, 5 October, I am glad to inform you that the Llangollen International Musical Eisteddfod Committee will be pleased to pay you 50 guineas plus free accommodation here during the Festival for your services as adjudicator 14-19 June, 1949. I shall be pleased to know that you are able to undertake the engagement.

Yours sincerely,

GW/NJ.

Hon. Music Director.

Dear Solon Michaelides,

Thank you for your letter of 4 October and translation of "Tomb".
I am very glad that you have arrived
quite safely.

I also thank you for the postal orders for £4 to clear "Sappho's Lyre" and copies of "Crux Fidelis". Receipt for the copies of "Sappho's Lyre" is sent you herewith. Cash Sale note for "Crux Fidelis" has been sent with the copies under separate cover.

I note that you would like to come here next 4-9 July, and I will bring the matter up before my Executive Committee at the first opportunity and let you hear from me as soon as possible. I should like to know that the payment should be as before, as I will have to ask for the agreement of the Finance Committee.

Very kindest regards,
Very sincerely,

GW/NJ.
ENC.
