Dear Biographee:

Dictionary of International Biography, Volume XII, 1975-76 Edition

I have pleasure in attaching to this letter a clipping of your entry as it appeared in D.I.B. XI. You will, by now, have received your personal copy of D.I.B. XI and I hope you are completely satisfied with it.

I am now enclosing a Personal Priority Questionnaire for your use for D.I.B. XII, to be published late in 1975, and I hope that you will kindly complete it and return it to me as soon as possible. Even if you have no changes to make it will be most helpful if you will return the Questionnaire marked "No changes". I am, however, hoping that you will wish to add to your published entry.

This Twelfth Edition of D.I.B. will again be issued as a two part set - A to K and L to Z. There will also, as previously, be a special Royal Edition and I will gladly send you full details on request.

As an established biographee of the Dictionary of International Biography, I can offer you, as a very special concession, a Pre-publication Subscription price of only US $42.50 for the two-part set, to include air shipment, (£15.50 sterling U.K. and Europe), provided that your Questionnaire (with remittance) is received by us not later than the date printed on the Questionnaire. Should you wish to take advantage of this offer, merely change the price of US $45.00 (or £16.50 sterling) to US $42.50 (or £15.50 sterling) on the back page. We will attend to everything else.

I know you will recognize this as a valuable concession, particularly as the published price to non-biographees is US $65.00 (£25.00 sterling).

I am personally looking forward to hearing from you.

Sincerely,

Ernest Kay
Hon. General Editor
