Dear Colleague,

The fourth Meeting of the European Poets will be organized this year by the Union of the Hungarian Writers. We would like to invite to that Meeting - which will be organized on the occasion of the centenary of the great Hungarian poet, Endre Ady - 100 Hungarian and 80 European poets. The principal subject of the Meeting is: The revolution of the poetry and the poetry of the revolution, on the centenary of Ady. The two other subjects are: Of what sends word Ady to the world and to us? - Possibilities and mission of the committed poetry in these days.

The official languages of the Meeting are the Hungarian, the English, the French, the German and the Russian.

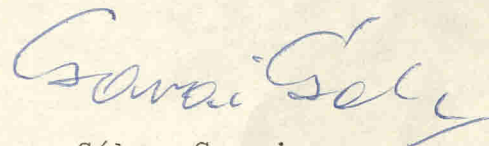

We invite you to that Meeting which will be organized at Budapest between the 9 and the 15 October 1977. All the fees of your journey /hotel, meals, internal transports/ will be payed by the Union of the Hungarian Writers.

We would be very glad to have your answer before June 30, so we will have sufficient time for the preparations. It is after your answer that we will send you the detailed programme of the Meeting.

Sincerely yours

Imre Dobozy
