Dear Mr. Peonides,

Thank you for your letter about the Oscar. As you can imagine we were all delighted with the outcome.

I find your question an impossible one to answer. I think if I had an unlimited amount of money at my disposal, I wouldn't make a film; and one chooses actors who are suitable for each particular project. I never start off with the actors in mind first.

With best wishes,
Yours sincerely,

John Schlesinger.
