Dear Elli,

I meant to send you those as soon as I got home but two days went by and then another two until they were too. A long time. However here they are. The Signalman's Apprentice is for yesterday and 'Paddy' might be interesting for Cyrus. If you need to contact me I will be at 'Cottage 310, Pinford Farm, nr Sherborne, Dorset,' until the 15th of July then we go to Ireland, until Sept. A message or letter can always be sent to my agent, 'Douglas Roe Management, 28 CHADING CROSS ROAD, London W.C.2

I am trying to finish my play for German television but am finding it very hard to settle down to work. We had a beautiful day drinking wine in a cherry grove and eating the fruit off the trees before we went back to Sofia. And of course some dancing.

I hope you enjoy the plays and one day we will all meet again. Are any of your books translated into English?

Dear Elli,

Sorry for the delay in replying to you but I was waiting until I knew where I would be in July. As you can see we are not living in London at the moment. We came to live in the country for a year and my family do not want to go back to London so we are on our third year. I still have my house in London so it's easy for me to go up there. We will probably stay here until Kate takes her O Level exams at sixteen which is another two years. She is at a small country school and very happy there so it would be unfair to drag her back to the city.

Certainly we must meet and yes, you will meet lots of people in the theatre. We are only two and a half hours from London so distance is no problem. Let me know when you are coming and I will contact Adrian. We will have a glorious reunion.
