Dear Elli and Panos,

First of all let me express my regret for not having gotten to you earlier to thank you for your kindness and attention. I hope you had a good trip home and are enjoying life.

In the meantime I have contacted your man at the Cyprus Tourist office, and last week I met with your friend at the Greek Information office. Both men seem to hold you in great esteem and look to you for intellectual leadership. I was very impressed with their reaction to me via you.

In any case I have to get back to Mr. Moustas with some suggestions after receiving whatever printed information he had at hand. Frankly, it wasn't very impressive and I am sure you can help them greatly in setting a tone for Cyprus (please don't tell him). But I have asked my agents around the world whether there is any chance of getting Cyprus pieces published. Yes, they said, if I do it there is a chance. So I will suggest to Mr. Moustas that he let me make an exploratory trip, and, with your help, find some stories that will make an impact. I think that is all I can promise at this time.

As to Greece, a country I know well and love, I do think that it is high time that a meaningful large scale book be published. In looking around the NY bookstores I find nothing except guides and poorly printed travel books. There is more to Greece as a country and I am interested in producing a really fine book embracing country, people, politics, the arts, and the leading personalities. I think that this book has to be done whether I or someone else does it. Mr. Houliaras seemed to be in agreement and he asked me to put forward a proposal, including costs, and I will do that as soon as I receive the material I asked him for.

I will be in Italy, Switzerland, France and England in August. returning here around the 25th. I am leaving here August 7th. Perhaps you can call, fax, or write me before I leave or after I return so that we can coordinate our interests.

I very much look forward to meeting both of you on your native soil. It should be a very educational trip for me.

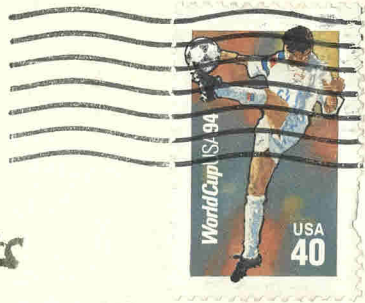

And I thank you again for all your kindness.

With best wishes and regards,

Jacques Lowe
